Vandors and CinemaNext sign agreement for business operations in Germany

Liège-Barchon (Belgium) and Munich (Germany) – 7 June 2023

CinemaNext, the EMEA specialist in cinema exhibitor services, and Vandors GmbH, Germany's leading full-service partner for cinema technology, today announced an agreement to combine their cinema exhibitor services in Germany under the Vandors umbrella. With this, CinemaNext Deutschland GmbH's technical and business operations will become part of Vandors' cinema integration services this July.

“We are absolutely thrilled to be joining forces with CinemaNext and to take the next step in expanding our high quality and full-service offering to exhibitors across Germany,” explains Tammo Buhren, co-founder and co-Managing Director of Vandors GmbH. “With its broad international expertise and portfolio of first-rate CinemaNext-branded products we will continue to market and sell in Germany, CinemaNext is the perfect complement to our core business. This will allow us to offer even deeper skills in cinema technology, technical innovation, consultancy, technology development and deployment to ensure operators deliver an incomparable experience to their audiences every time.”

For Georges Garic, CEO of CinemaNext, "Two innovative companies sharing a common philosophy and desire to provide German cinema exhibitors with the best products and services tailored for various market segments at a good price have decided to partner under the Vandors brand. Remote support and online monitoring will continue to be provided by CinemaNext's dedicated Network Operations Center (NOC), ensuring cinema operators' technical needs remain met around the clock. Together, working as one team, we will place our clients on the best path for continued success in the ever-evolving cinema landscape.”

The CinemaNext Deutschland team will remain based in Düsseldorf and will become an integrated part of Vandors, with its head office located in Munich.
